

ANNUAL SPONSOR BENEFITS

The 9th Annual Boulder Jewish Film Festival (BJFF) will be entirely virtual in March of 2021. While we will miss seeing everyone, we are excited to bring the best in world cinema to your living room. In-depth, one-on-one discussion will continue, with the opportunity for more filmmakers to be present to discuss their work.

Unique virtual opportunities:

- Sponsors will have broader exposure with viewers tuning in from across the country.
- Instead of individual tickets, you can purchase access to view the movie for your entire household.
- We will feature even more guest speakers than in years past!
- Dedicated tech support will be available.
